Dornier Flying Boat DO-X Starts Ocean Flight

LEAVES LISBON ON FIRST LEG OF LONG TRIP

FOLLOWS TAGUS TOWARD ITS MOUTH, WINGING WAY TO THE CANARIES

SHIP WEIGHED 55 TONS, LAST MINUTE ADDITIONS INCREASED
1100 POUNDS

Lisbon, Jan. 31.—(UP)—The Dornier flying boat DO-X left Lisbon for Las Palmas, in the Canary Islands, on the first leg of a proposed flight to South America at 8 a. m. today.

The DO-X began maneuvering in the river Tagus at 7:30. Shortly before eight o'clock the giant craft started taxiing down stream, and rose steadily and easily after a two-minute run.

The DO-X followed the Tagus toward its mouth and disappeared over the sea at 8:10. A Portuguese seaplane escorted the flying boat on the first few miles of its southern journey.

The wind was favorable and the weather good, although slightly cloudy when the DO-X departed. The ship flew low over the Tagus estuary and passed over the town of Cascaes, on the Atlantic 15 miles west of Lisbon.

The route from Lisbon to the Canaries is slightly over 700 miles. The DO-X carried 800 pounds of mail and six passengers on the first part of the South America journey. Rio De Janeiro is the ultimate goal, to be reached in easy stages, after which the flying boat is expected to visit North America.

St. Vincent, I the Cape Verde Islands, was the next port of call after Las Palmas, requiring an ocean flight of some 900 miles. The longest sea hop of the trip will come between St. Vincent and Natal, Brazil, about 1,600 miles.

Capt. Friedrich commanded the DO-X. Lieut. Clarence H. Schildhauer, former American navy flier, is co-pilot.

The flight of the DO-X was delayed two weeks at Lisbon after she damaged one wing of the giant machine as she lay at anchor in the harbor here.

The DO-X weighed 55 tons when it left Lisbon. Last minute additions increased the mail load to over 1,100 pounds.

The ship carried a crew of 13. Of the six passengers, four will disembark at Las Palmas. The others, the famous Portuguese trans-Atlantic flier Admiral Gago Coutinho and the German director of the Condor Brazilian Air Syndicate, Fritz Hammer, will continue to Rio De Janeiro.

Las Palmas, Jan. 31.—(UP)—A message from the DO-X today said the big ship was traveling in excellent weather on the first stage of its flight across the South Atlantic.

The message said the flying boat was expected to reach Las Palmas at 2 p. m. and that the flight had been uneventful.

Las Palmas, Canary Islands, Jan. 31.—(UP)—The flying boat DO-X arrived today at 2:10 p. m. after a flight from Lisbon, on the first stage of its trans-Atlantic flight to Brazil and thence northward to New York.

The DO-X, largest flying boat in the world, carried its six passengers and 13 members of the crew over the 700-mile route from Lisbon to Las Palmas in six hours and 50 minutes, averaging a little better than 100 miles an hour.

The craft landed easily off Las Palmas.

'INCOGNITO' OF AIMEE DISCOVERED

HER ENTRANCE TO INDIA TO BE
"ON PURELY RELIGIOUS GROUNDS"

Honolulu, T. H., Jan. 31.—(UP)—Wrathful over the discovery of her "incognito," but with her pique somewhat mollified by the purchase of a bright, new Hula-Hula skirt, Aimee Semple McPherson, preacher of the "Four-Square Gospel" today sped toward India aboard the liner President Wilson.

Disclaiming any political intentions, Mrs. McPherson told the United Press before leaving Honolulu last night that her entrance into India would be "on purely religious grounds."

"I want to get close to the women of the east," she exclaimed. "I want to get in on the ground floor."

Said to be suffering from a nervous breakdown, Mrs. McPherson kept to her stateroom during the voyage. She attributed her success in concealing her identity from her fellow passengers to her pale complexion and evident loss of weight. She travelled under the name of "Mrs. Grant."

The evangelist purchased a Hula skirt and a book of instructions on Hawaii's colorful dance on a shopping tour here.

BIG DEPARTMENT STORE DESTROYED BY FIRE, $500,000 LOSS

Cedar Rapids, Ia., Jan. 31.—(UP)—The Newman department store and practically all its stock of merchandise was destroyed by fire last night. The loss was estimated at about $500,000.

The building was a four-story, brick structure, about 30 years old, with wooden floors. It burned fiercely for three hours and was destroyed by 10:30 P. M. The city's eight crews of firemen early gave up hope of saving the building and directed their efforts to saving other stores.

The Newman Company also has stores in St. Joseph, Kansas City and several other cities of the southwest.

'CITY LIGHTS' OF CHAPLIN IN ITS PREMIER SHOW

TRUE TO PROMISE OF SCREEN
COMEDIAN, NOT A WORD WAS SPOKEN

ONLY SOUND WAS CHAPLIN'S
HICCOUGHS AND HIS EATING
SPAGHETTI

By RONALD D. WAGONER
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Los Angeles, Jan. 31.—(UP)—Charles Chaplin stood before a select audience on the screen of the new Los Angeles theater last night and twirled his bamboo cane in defiance of the new colossus of the entertainment world while 50,000 persons milled about in the streets outside.

The comedian presented his production "City Lights" in a world premiere and, true to his promise, not a word was spoken.

Outside the theater, 400 police officers held in check a jostling, good-humored crowd of 50,000 persons who wanted to see the famous actress and actors arriving in limousines.

It was one of Los Angeles' most spectacular premieres, principally because Chaplin was defying the talkies by releasing a silent picture three years after such things had stopped.

Several persons fainted. Others were knocked down. A police ambulance gave first aid. Glass on poster frames in the lobby of the new $2,000,000 theater was broken. Police ropes were down almost as soon as they went up. The plot centered around a blind flower girl Chaplin befriended and a drunken millionaire he met on his rounds in a big city. The girl was played by Virginia Cherrill and the millionaire by Harry Meyers.

A prize ring scene, Chaplin giving a sound version of hiccoughs and rather startling effects of eating spaghetti were the comic high spots of the production.

Most Los Angeles critics received the production with enthusiasm and many of the film business leaders, with millions tied up in the talkies expressed opinion that Chaplin had scored.

New York, Jan. 31.—Further selling came into the stock market today and the majority of prices reacted fractionally to 2 points.

Auburn Auto dipped 2 points to 140, which was off 8 points from yesterday's high. Elsewhere losses were smaller. Fractional recessions were noted in International Telephone, Gold Dust, North American, Packard, Westinghouse Electric and Texas Corporation.

There were a few advances spread over the list. One of these was Worthington Pump, which opened at 83 1/4, up 1 1/4. Later, however, it lost all the gain. Loew's held firm as did American Water Works, Sears Roebuck, A. M. Byers, American Telephone and Atchison.

New Catastrophe of Nature Follows Drought of 1930 and Adds to Misery That It Caused

JANUARY IS A MONTH OF EXTREMES

RANKS 3rd FOR ALL TIME IN LACK OF PRECIPITATION

THIRD FOR WARMTH, BUT FIRST
FOR A COMBINATION OF 2
EXTREMES

Chicago, Jan. 31.—(UP)—A new catastrophe of nature, following closely the drought of 1930 and adding greatly to the misery that it caused, threatened the midwest today as the first month of 1931 neared its close.

Ranking third for all time in lack of precipitation and third for warmth, but first of all the Januaries in a combination of the two extremes, the month just ending has delivered almost the final blow to midwestern residents who still were groggy from the terrific pounding given them last year by nature.

In some sections where there was little rain in 1930 and neither snow nor rain the last month, the situation has become acute.

In southern Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky and parts of other states, whole towns are suffering from lack of water, winter crops are being ruined, and disease, caused partly by the freakish weather conditions, is spreading rapidly.

The forecasts today were for slightly lower temperatures, but it was certain the month would go down in history as one of the warmest on record.

Temperatures yesterday were excessive in all states except the east. At Chicago, a shift of the winds about noon prevented the mercury from reaching an all time record for January. As it was, it climbed to 49, within a degree of the high mark of 50 set in 1913.

Some other high marks for the day were: Cincinnati, 58; Indianapolis, 56; Des Moines, 54; St. Louis, 66; Oklahoma City, 72; Little Rock, 74; Bismarck, 54; Denver, 56; Phoenix, 68; Los Angeles, 74; Minneapolis, 46; and Wichita, 68.

The city of Springfield, Ill., provided an example of the lack of moisture. Precipitation there in 1930 was 12.13 inches less than in an ordinary year and the first month of 1931 has added 1.78 inches more to this shortage. Farm experts meeting there this week declared the situation was alarming and that unless rain or snow fell soon all crops would be seriously harmed.

In Wisconsin, which ordinarily is covered with a heavy blanket of snow throughout January, snakes were seen crawling about in the grass near Baraboo and at Eau Claire a mole was seen sunning himself on a lawn.

In Chicago, the unusual weather was blamed in part for an increase of 28 per cent over January, 1930, in the number of deaths from pneumonia.

Authorities had various theories about the unusual month. Prof. Griffith Taylor who has charge of climatology research at the University of Chicago, blamed it to sun spots.

At the Chicago weather bureau, C. A. Donnel, meteorologist, said conditions were due to absence of marked areas of high or low pressures.

"Such things occur spasmodically," he said, "and at such times, the zero waves simply stay up north instead of coming down into the United States."

WAITERS GROWING WHISKERS, NOT TO BE MISTAKEN AS DINERS

London, Jan. 31.—(UP)—Waiters in a famous hotel here are growing whiskers, in order that they may be distinguished from the guests.

In immaculate evening dress, the waiters were always as perfectly groomed as the diners and, as one gay young blade explained, it was becoming a bit embarrassing to stop another diner suddenly and order him to bring up another bottle of wine and then discover he was Lord So-and-So.

Charlie Chaplin and the ex-kaiser are considered here to be the most famous sponsors of mustaches while some of the prominent men who still are faithful to beards are George Bernard Shaw, Sir Hall Caine, Augustus John, the artist, and Sir Rabindranath Tagore, the philosopher.

The Panay, which was escorting a merchant vessel, silenced the fire of the Chinese. No casualties were reported.

Irregularities in Leasing Oil Shale Lands May Be Probed

Washington, Jan. 31.—(UP)—Secretary of Interior Wilbur today demanded of the senate public lands committee a thorough investigation of charges there had been irregularities in leasing of Colorado oil shale lands.

Senator Glenn, republican, Illinois, immediately asked that a subpoena be issued for the publisher of the New York World or whoever on that paper may have been responsible for printing the oil shale charges made by Ralph S. Kelley, former interior department official.

Authorities had various theories about the unusual month. Prof. Griffith Taylor who has charge of climatology research at the University of Chicago, blamed it to sun spots.

At the Chicago weather bureau, C. A. Donnel, meteorologist, said conditions were due to absence of marked areas of high or low pressures.

3 MEN HANGED AT CANON CITY LAST NIGHT

TRIPLE EXECUTIONS ACCOMPLISHED IN 1 HOUR AND 11 MINUTES

EXPATE CRIME OF SLAYING
UNDERSHERIFF CORAL
A. HICKMAN

By WILLIAM H. BAILEY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Canon City, Colo., Jan. 31.—(UP)—Three men were hanged on Colorado's extraordinary gallows last night.

Claude Ray, 24, Andrew Halliday, 22, and John Walker, 45, were put to death in that order in one hour and eleven minutes for killing Undersheriff Coral A. Hickman, who tried to stop them as they fled out of Kansas with the loot of a bank robbery last March.

Ray was kneeling in prayer with the Rev. J. W. Wells and the Rev. John Tedder when guards came to take him to the execution chamber. The Rev. Tedder took from his pocket a harp and played "The Old Rugged Cross" during the march.

Confronting the assembled witnesses, Ray, the actual killer of the trio said he hoped their deaths would be a lesson to others.

"My house is swept clean," he said, "I am coming." His arms were strapped to his sides. A hood was placed over his head. The sound of his prayers beneath the hood could be heard.

The noose was placed around his neck. The rope stretched up to the ceiling where it passed through a pulley and down behind a partition in the room to a 549 pound weight.

An unseen executioner released the weight, which fell with a crash, and Ray was jerked to the ceiling. The knot of the noose had been placed under his left ear and the violent jerk broke his neck. He was cut down at 8:46 p. m.

Halliday followed at 9:26 p. m. and Walker at 9:57. The Rev. Regis Barrett, prison chaplain, baptised them in the Catholic faith and administered last rites just before their executions.

The men refused to decide for themselves who would hang first, and prison authorities decided, selecting the actual killer to be first. He will be buried today on Woodpecker Hill, the prison cemetery, and the bodies of the others will be sent to Missouri.

In his last moments, Walker assumed responsibility for the predicament of the others, and said his own ignorance was the cause of it all. He never went past the fifth grade in school, he said, and thus handicapped, he turned to crime 20 years ago, including Ray and Halliday, almost illiterate miners, to join him robbing banks several years ago.

Columbus, O., Jan. 31.—(UP)—The electric chair at Ohio penitentiary claimed three more victims last night. Three bandits, all of Mansfield, O., were executed for the killing of a filling station attendant.

Earl Sides, 27, was the first to die. He was followed by Kenneth McCartney, 25, and Fred Massa, 27. They were convicted of complicity in the killing of Ralph Wilcox, of Gallon, O., during a holdup of his filling station June 27 last year.

Massa, the leader of the three, was characterized by Dr. Creed, state alienist, as being of "more than average intelligence." Dr. Creed examined all three to determine whether their plea of insanity was justified. Sides and McCartney, he said, were under average intelligence, but knew the difference between right and wrong. Massa had admitted firing the shot which killed Wilcox.

The youths appeared resigned as they went to the chair.

Chicago, Jan. 31.—(UP)—Two polite bandits kidnaped two wealthy women residents of the Gold Coast last night, took them for an hour's automobile ride, stole their jewelry and fur coats, then took them home and left after hoping the women "wouldn't catch cold without their coats."

The victims were Mrs. Robert S. Strauss and Mrs. A. A. Anderson, who had attended a theater and were in front of Mrs. Strauss' home when the bandits approached them.

Mrs. Anderson lost a $2,000 coat and several rings. Mrs. Strauss lost a $500 coat and three rings valued at about $3,000. The total loss, she said, was more than $8,000.

HOUSE AND SENATE ARE TIED UP TODAY

EXTRA SESSION MAY FOLLOW IF
NEITHER SIDE GIVES ANY
GROUND

IN SENATE MINORITY LEADER
ROBINSON THREATENS OB-
STRUCTIONS

By THOMAS L. STOKES
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Jan. 31.—(UP)—House and senate were tied up today in a deadlock over relief legislation which appears certain to force an extra session unless one side or the other gives way.

In the senate, minority leader Robinson threatens to stop necessary supply bills unless a general relief program he has outlined, including the $25,000,000 food appropriation, is enacted. The house is standing square behind President Hoover in an attempt to kill the major part of the program.

The immediate issue is the $25,000,000 appropriation in the interior department supply bill which the senate voted to the Red Cross and which that organization says it will not accept. The house, by rather sizeable majorities went on record against that proposal yesterday.

Today, the fate of the appropriation was thrown into a conference between house and senate, with senate conferees instructed to insist upon it and house conferees ordered to stand against it. The house has won out in such conferences hitherto this session, but a victory this time might be meaningless in view of Robinson's organized move to keep adding the item to other appropriation bills.

Though of the minority party, Robinson now is in control of the senate through the full support of his party there and a following among western republicans. House leaders are concerned by his threat, realizing its portent.

They were confronted with the alternative of continuing to vote down the relief program and facing the certainty of a special session, on yielding to a compromise. They were divided in their councils, with the probability they will go to the White House with their dilemma.

"If they insist upon an extra session, there's nothing we can do about it," said Republican Floor Leader Tilson, but he emphasized that he was speaking only for himself. "Personally, I won't compromise on principle."

Tilson is not in accord with Speaker Longworth on the course to be pursued. Several days ago the speaker favored a compromise on the $25,000,000 appropriation, but there was no spirit of compromise evident yesterday when administration forces in the house overwhelmed the opposition.

Democrats sought to get around the Red Cross refusal to administer the proposed $25,000,000 appropriation by offering to vote the money to President Hoover, to the war department or to charitable, fraternal and religious organizations. Republicans rejected every proposal.

Litigant Superstitious, Did Not Relish Friday, Feb. 13, as Hearing Date

Minneapolis, Minn., Jan. 31.—(UP)—Not superstitious but determined was Mrs. Gertrude Davis who insisted that Probate Judge Manley L. Fosseen change the date of a hearing involving her mother's estate, which had been set for Friday, February 13.

"I certainly am not superstitious, your honor," she said, "but I would prefer some other date."

"Then why?" asked the judge.

"Because," she answered. The date of the hearing was changed.

BUTLER TO FACE COURT MARTIAL

TIME OR PLACE FOR TRIAL NOT
DETERMINED, EXACT CHARGES
NOT REVEALED

Washington, Jan. 31.—(UP)—The formal charges upon which Major-General Smedley D. Butler, U. S. M. C., must face a court martial, will be in the hands of Secretary of the Navy Charles Francis Adams either this afternoon or Monday, according to information at the office of the judge-advocate of the navy.

While none would reveal the exact charges it was considered certain that Butler's comments upon Premier Mussolini of Italy which caused his prosecution would be viewed in the official papers either as conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman or as conduct prejudicial to good order and discipline.

Secretary Adams said today that he had not determined either the time or the place for the trial. It was believed it would be held in Washington or at one of the naval establishments nearby and that the court would convene within the next two weeks.

BANDITS

Washington, Jan. 31.—(31)—The navy department was advised today that the Gunboat Panay, attached to the Yangtze river patrol in China, had been fired upon by Chinese bandits opposite Temple Hill. The Panay, which was escorting a merchant vessel, silenced the fire of the Chinese. No casualties were reported.

Irregularities in Leasing Oil Shale Lands May Be Probed

Washington, Jan. 31.—(UP)—Secretary of Interior Wilbur today demanded of the senate public lands committee a thorough investigation of charges there had been irregularities in leasing of Colorado oil shale lands.

Senator Glenn, republican, Illinois, immediately asked that a subpoena be issued for the publisher of the New York World or whoever on that paper may have been responsible for printing the oil shale charges made by Ralph S. Kelley, former interior department official.

JURY DISAGREES SECOND TIME IN CANNON CASE

SON OF BISHOP CANNON WAS CHARGED WITH ISSUING FICTITIOUS CHECKS

JURY STANDS 8 TO 4 ON CHARGE
HE GAVE WORTHLESS CHECK
OF $31 FOR WAGES

Pasadena, Cal., Jan. 31.—(UP)—For the second time in a week, a jury trying Major Richard M. Cannon, son of Bishop James Cannon Jr., on a charge of issuing a fictitious check has disagreed. Disposition of the charge one of 10, was being considered today.

The jury reported that it stood 8 to 4 on the specific charge that young Cannon gave a worthless check for $31 in payment of wages, although the foreman did not make known whether the majority was for conviction or acquittal.

Meanwhile first trial, which ended last Wednesday resulted in a deadlock at 7 to 5 for acquittal.

Meanwhile Cannon will face another charge in police court today. In this Mrs. Phyllis A. Case claims that he failed to pay her $22.50 for three days wages as teacher in his private school. Disposition of the first charge will be decided Monday at a conference between defense counsel of Charles Lowrey, state labor commission attorney who is prosecuting the case.

Week of Life With Parrots Blood in Young Girl's Veins

Joliet, Ill., Jan. 31.—(UP)—A week of life with parrot's blood in her veins has improved the condition of Lillian Fisher, 14, infantile paralysis victim, her physicians reported today.

Lillian is able to recognize her mother and father, the only visitors allowed in her room at St. Joseph's hospital where her condition became critical last week.

Physicians declined to comment on the effectiveness of the parrot's blood, which was injected through a misunderstanding.

Dr. H. E. Stephen, one of the attending physicians, pointed out that injection of any kind of blood or even warm milk would have had a slightly beneficial result.

FAMILY TRAGEDY IS BARED IN ALBANY

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 31.—(UP)—Merle Victor Fuller, 16, of Altamont, was held today after allegedly confessing he attempted to poison his father to collect a $10,000 insurance policy with which to pay for medical treatment for his step-mother.

According to state troopers who questioned the youth for 13 hours, he never went past the fifth grade in school, he said, and thus handicapped, he turned to crime 20 years ago, inducing Ray and Halliday, almost illiterate miners, to join him robbing banks several years ago.

Columbus, O., Jan. 31.—(UP)—The electric chair at Ohio penitentiary claimed three more victims last night. Three bandits, all of Mansfield, O., were executed for the killing of a filling station attendant.

Earl Sites, 27, was the first to die. He was followed by Kenneth McCartney, 25, and Fred Massa, 27. They were convicted of complicity in the killing of Ralph Wilcox, of Gallon, O., during a holdup of his filling station June 27 last year.

Massa, the leader of the three, was characterized by Dr. Creed, state alienist, as being of "more than average intelligence." Dr. Creed examined all three to determine whether their plea of insanity was justified. Sites and McCartney, he said, were under average intelligence, but knew the difference between right and wrong.

Massa had admitted firing the shot which killed Wilcox.

The youths appeared resigned as they went to the chair.

Chicago, Jan. 31.—(UP)—Two polite bandits kidnaped two wealthy women residents of the Gold Coast last night, took them for an hour's automobile ride, stole their jewelry and fur coats, then took them home and left after hoping the women "wouldn't catch cold without their coats."

The victims were Mrs. Robert S. Straus and Mrs. A. A. Anderson, who had attended a theater and were in front of Mrs. Straus' home when the bandits approached them.

Mrs. Anderson lost a $2,000 coat and several rings. Mrs. Straus lost a $500 coat and three rings valued at about $3,000. The total loss, they said, was more than $8,000.

HOUSE AND SENATE ARE TIED UP TODAY

EXTRA SESSION MAY FOLLOW IF
GROUND

ROBINSON THREATENS OB-
STRUCTIONS

By THOMAS L. STOKES
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Jan. 31.—(UP)—House and senate were tied up today in a deadlock over relief legislation which appears certain to force an extra session unless one side or the other gives way.

In the senate, minority leader Robinson threatens to stop necessary supply bills unless a general relief program he has outlined, including the $25,000,000 food appropriation, is enacted. The house is standing squarely behind President Hoover in an attempt to kill the major part of the program.

The immediate issue is the $25,000,000 appropriation in the interior department supply bill which the senate voted to the Red Cross and which that organization says it will not accept. The house, by rather sizeable majorities went on record against that proposal yesterday.

Today, the fate of the appropriation was thrown into a conference between house and senate, with senate conferees instructed to insist upon it and house conferees ordered to stand against it. The house has won out in such conferences hitherto this session, but a victory this time might be meaningless in view of Robinson's organized move to keep adding the item to other appropriation bills.

Though of the minority party, Robinson now is in control of the senate through the full support of his party there and a following among western republicans. House leaders are concerned by his threat, realizing its portent.

They were confronted with the alternative of continuing to vote down the relief program and facing the certainty of a special session, on yielding to a compromise. They were divided in their councils, with the probability they will go to the White House with their dilemma.

"If they insist upon an extra session, there's nothing we can do about it," said Republican Floor Leader Tilson, but he emphasized that he was speaking only for himself. "Personally, I won't compromise on principle."

Tilson is not in accord with Speaker Longworth on the course to be pursued. Several days ago the speaker favored a compromise on the $25,000,000 appropriation, but there was no spirit of compromise evident yesterday when administration forces in the house overwhelmed the opposition.

Democrats sought to get around the Red Cross refusal to administer the proposed $25,000,000 appropriation by offering to vote the money to President Hoover, to the war department or to charitable, fraternal and religious organizations. Republicans rejected every proposal.

Litigant Superstitious, Did Not Relish Friday, Feb. 13, as Hearing Date

Minneapolis, Minn., Jan. 31.—(UP)—Not superstitious but determined was Mrs. Gertrude Davis who insisted that Probate Judge Manley L. Fosseen change the date of a hearing involving her mother's estate, which had been set for Friday, February 13.

"I certainly am not superstitious, your honor," she said, "but I would prefer some other date."

"Then why?" asked the judge.

"Because," she answered. The date of the hearing was changed.

BUTLER TO FACE COURT MARTIAL

TIME OR PLACE FOR TRIAL NOT
DETERMINED, EXACT CHARGES
NOT REVEALED

Washington, Jan. 31.—(UP)—The formal charges upon which Major-General Smedley D. Butler, U. S. M. C., must face a court martial, will be in the hands of Secretary of the Navy Charles Francis Adams either this afternoon or Monday, according to information at the office of the judge-advocate of the navy.

While none would reveal the exact charges it was considered certain that Butler's comments upon Premier Mussolini of Italy which caused his prosecution would be viewed in the official papers either as conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman or as conduct prejudicial to good order and discipline.

Secretary Adams said today that he had not determined either the time or the place for the trial. It was believed it would be held in Washington or at one of the naval establishments nearby and that the court would convene within the next two weeks.

SEEK EARLY COMPLETION OF WATERWAYS

REP. MANSFIELD, DEMOCRAT, TEXAS, SPEAKS IN FAVOR OF BILL

MEASURE IN SENATE INTRODUCED BY SENATOR SHIPSTEAD

Washington, Jan. 31.—(UP)—Early passage by the house of a joint bill to provide for immediate completion of all waterways projects was asked today in a speech by Rep. Mansfield, dem., Texas. The measure, calling for a $500,000,000 bond issue, has been introduced in the senate by Senator Shipstead, farmer-labor, Minn.

The projects include ports and inland waterways, both river and canal, intracoastal and connecting waterways; connecting channels of the Great Lakes and the proposed 27-foot channel in the St. Lawrence river.

"Conservative estimates have shown that on account of the 'dribbling policy' pursued with reference to many of our inland waters, the cost of improvement has been increased 30 per cent," Mansfield said.

Both the Ohio and Missouri river improvement projects were delayed far beyond the time set for their completion, he added, being held up only because of the slowness with which appropriations were made by congress.

Mansfield charged that railroad interests delayed the Ohio and Missouri river projects and warned that "we are now confronted by a renewed fight from the railroads."

The Texas said the railroads plan to organize their stockholders, owners and employees as well as general business interests to fight the proposed bond issue.

"If they are successful there will be but little money available from year to year to be expended on our major waterways," he told the house.

THIS WEEK IN THE MINNESOTA LEGISLATURE

(By United Press)

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 31.—Gov. Floyd E. Olson's victory in his campaign to remove several of the 122 interim appointments made by former Governor Theodore Christianson on his last day in office was the outstanding event of Minnesota's legislative session during the past week.

By removing the names of Agricultural Commissioner W. J. Holmberg and Industrial Commissioner F. A. Duxbury from Christianson's list of appointees, the governor was conceded to have won out on his most important objections. Other high lights of the legislative week included:

Monday—Olson started action to remove Henry Rines, state controller and J. H. McNiven, tax commissioner, senate liberals announced they had sufficient support to stop confirmation of all of Christianson's appointments.

Tuesday—C. J. Swensen, chairman of the State Board of Control, asked the senate for an abridgement of $1,559,290 to enlarge facilities at state institutions. Governor Olson asked H. H. Flowers to resign as secretary of the State Rural Credit Bureau.

Wednesday—Senate removed the names of Holmberg and Duxbury from list of Christianson appointees. Lieut. Gov. Henry Arens announced he was not a candidate to succeed Holmberg.

Thursday—Senate Highway Committee passed the $15,400,000 state highway bill for construction and maintenance of Minnesota's roads. Olson announced he wished an investigation of the progress being made by the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence Tidewater Association.

Friday—Bill was introduced in the senate providing that the state should be re-districted and the number of congressional districts be reduced from 10 to 9.

SEEK EARLY COMPLETION OF WATERWAYS

REP. MANSFIELD, DEMOCRAT, TEXAS, SPEAKS IN FAVOR OF BILL.

MEASURE IN SENATE INTRODUCED BY SENATOR SHIPSTEAD

Washington, Jan. 31.—(UP)—Early passage by the house of a joint bill to provide for immediate completion of all waterways projects was asked today in a speech by Rep. Mansfield, dem., Texas. The measure, calling for a $500,000,000 bond issue, has been introduced in the senate by Senator Shipstead, farmer-labor, Minn.

The projects include ports and inland waterways, both river and canal, intracoastal and connecting waterways; connecting channels of the Great Lakes and the proposed 27-foot channel in the St. Lawrence river.

"Conservative estimates have shown that on account of the 'dribbling policy' pursued with reference to many of our inland waters, the cost of improvement has been increased 40 per cent," Mansfield said.

Both the Ohio and Missouri river improvement projects were delayed far beyond the time set for their completion, he added, being held up only because of the slowness with which appropriations were made by congress.

Mansfield charged that railroad interests delayed the Ohio and Missouri river projects and warned that "we are now confronted by a renewed fight from the railroads."

The Texan said the railroads plan to organize their stockholders, owners and employees as well as general business interests to fight the proposed bond issue.

"If they are successful there will be but little money available from year to year to be expended on our major waterways," he told the house.

THIS WEEK IN THE MINNESOTA LEGISLATURE

(By United Press)
St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 31.—Gov. Floyd B. Olson's victory in his campaign to remove several of the 122 interim appointments made by former Governor Theodore Christianson on his last day in office was the outstanding event of Minnesota's legislative session during the past week.

By removing the names of Agricultural Commissioner W. J. Holmberg and Industrial Commissioner E. A. Duxbury from Christianson's list of appointees, the governor was conceded to have won out on his most important objections. Other high lights of the legislative week included:

Monday—Olson started action to remove Henry Rines, state controller and J. H. McNivenw, tax commissioner, senate liberals announced they had sufficient support to stop confirmation of all of Christianson's appointments.

Tuesday—C. J. Swenesen, chairman of the State Board of Control, asked the senate for an budget increase of $1,559,290 to enlarge facilities at state institutions. Governor Olson asked H. H. Flowers to resign as secretary of the State Rural Credit Bureau.

Wednesday—Senate removed the names of Holmberg and Duxbury from list of Christianson appointees. Lieut. Gov. Henry Arens announced he was not a candidate to succeed Hornberg.

Thursday—Senate Highway Committee passed the $15,400,000 state highway bill for construction and maintenance of Minnesota's roads. Olson announced he wished an investigation of the progress being made by the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence Tidewater Association.

Friday—Bill was introduced in the senate providing that the state should be re-districted and the number of congressional districts be reduced from 10 to 9.

Wallace Appointment to Tax Commission is Confirmed by Governor

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 31.—(UP)—Appointment of George E. Wallace of Minneapolis to the Minnesota tax commission to succeed Chairman J. H. McNiven was confirmed today by Gov. Floyd B. Olson.

Wallace will assume his new duties Monday as will the other new Olson appointees. They are Edward Pearllove, comptroller, successor to Henry Rines; J. M. Peyton, bank commissioner, successor to A. J. Veigel; W. D. Stewart, game and fish commissioner, successor to George McCullough; and C. F. Gaarenstroom, secretary of the rural credits bureau, successor to H. H. Flowers.

Although backed by leaders of the farmer-labor party, Wallace's record as a tax expert rather than his political applications is believed to have earned him the position.

He was tax commissioner of North Dakota for 10 years, assistant taxation attorney for the Western Union in New York and special counsel for the federal trade commission in prosecution of anti-trust and tax fraud cases. He is an instructor in taxation and allied subjects in the Minneapolis college of law.

Rockne May Be the Compromise Candidate for Judge

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 31.—(UP)—George R. Smith, chairman of a committee in favor of the appointment of Ernest A. Michel, Minneapolis attorney, to Minnesota's new federal judgeship, said today that the vote of the Minnesota Bar Association favored Michel.

Of the 1341 ballots cast on the question by Minnesota attorneys, 293 recommended appointment of Michel, 976 were not in favor and 72 votes were voided.

"There were 15 aspirants for the position," Smith pointed out. "Each of the candidates had some supporters. Michel received 23 per cent of the total votes cast, which was a better showing than his followers had expected."

Meanwhile, reports persisted at the state capitol that the administration in Washington is, considering state Senator A. J. Rockne of Zumbrota as a compromise candidate. Rockne has said he would accept the appointment if it were proffered.

Appointment of Michel, which was recommended by Senator Thomas D. Schall, has been opposed by Attorney General W. D. Mitchell.

When Death Occurs Away From Home

In the course of a year we receive many inquiries concerning the necessary steps for interment when the deceased must be brought from a distance.

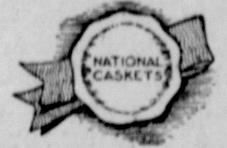

So seldom does this emergency arise in any family that the situation seems to present overwhelming difficulties.

But difficult as it may seem to the inexperienced, it is but a part of the day's work to the competent mortician.

He knows exactly the procedure to be followed when a body must be brought from a distance. He is trained to relieve the bereaved of every responsibility and no situation is so complex that the broad scope of his services cannot compass it.

Yes, This Riding Habit Was Once The Latest

WHEN this riding habit was in vogue, mechanically roasted coffee was also something new.

Today both the habit and roasted coffee are equally obsolete, equally out of date.

Nash's Toasted Coffee is the only really different coffee since women rode side-saddle—different because it is toasted by a new, scientific process. All other coffees are roasted—the method in vogue thirty years ago.

Science finds that toasting creates a coffee with 35.7% more flavor than the same coffee when roasted.

Be modern—serve toasted coffee. Be certain that your coffee is as up-to-date as your appearance—ask your grocer for Nash's Toasted Coffee, the only truly different coffee in decades.

Wallace Appointment to Tax Commission is Confirmed by Governor

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 31.—(UP)—Appointment of George E. Wallace of Minneapolis to the Minnesota tax commission to succeed Chairman J. H. McInven was confirmed today by Gov. Floyd B. Olson.

Wallace will assume his new duties Monday as will the other new Olson appointees. They are Edward Pearllove, comptroller, successor to Henry Rines; J. M. Peyton, bank commissioner, successor to A. J. Veigel; W. D. Stewart, game and fish commissioner, successor to George McCullough; and C. F. Gaarenstroom, secretary of the rural credits bureau, successor to H. H. Flowers.

Although backed by leaders of the farmer-labor party, Wallace's record as a tax expert rather than his political applications is believed to have earned him the position.

He was tax commissioner of North Dakota for 10 years, assistant taxation attorney for the Western Union in New York and special counsel for the federal trade commission in prosecution of anti-trust and tax fraud cases. He is an instructor in taxation and allied subjects in the Minneapolis college of law.

Rockne May Be the Compromise Candidate for Judge

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 31.—(UP)—George R. Smith, chairman of a committee in favor of the appointment of Ernest A. Michel, Minneapolis attorney, to Minnesota's new federal judgeship, said today that the vote of the Minnesota Bar Association favored Michel.

Of the 134 ballots cast on the question by Minnesota attorneys, 293 recommended appointment of Michel, 976 were not in favor and 72 votes were voided.

"There were 15 aspirants for the position," Smith pointed out. "Each of the candidates had some supporters. Michel received 23 per cent of the total votes cast, which was a better showing than his followers had expected."

Meanwhile, reports persisted at the state capitol that the administration in Washington is considering state Senator A. J. Rockne of Zumbrota as a compromise candidate. Rockne has said he would accept the appointment if it were proffered.

Appointment of Michel, which was recommended by Senator Thomas D. Schall, has been opposed by Attorney General W. D. Mitchell.

Stewart as Game Commissioner

THE appointment of William D. Stewart as State Game and Fish Commissioner seems to meet with general approval. In the Brainerd lake district Mr. Stewart is well known to many persons, having for years had a cottage on Gull lake and thus being acquainted first hand with game and fish conditions in the lake country.

His appointment, says the Bemidji Daily Pioneer, seems to strike a popular chord throughout the state and those who have come in contact with the genial sportsman predict that the state will benefit from his interest and enthusiasm.

Louis Enstrom of Roseau county, former member of the legislature, has been named as assistant and will spend most of his time in the field, inspecting the work being done and ascertaining the changes that may be required. From reliable information it is believed that there will be no wholesale removal of game wardens but that changes will only be made upon the recommendation of Mr. Enstrom after a careful examination of the work that has been done.

Commissioner Stewart showed his interest in adequate lake levels by attending the Brainerd meeting and making an address in behalf of the cause which means so much to the northern lake country and in its train affects fish and game life.

Flowers for Amateurs and for Professionals

Two short courses for florists, one for commercial florists and the other for amateurs, to be held at University Farm in March, have been announced by Dr. A. V. Storm, director of short courses, of the University Department of Agriculture.

The commercial florists' short course, set for March 4 and 5, is an entirely new course designed for those engaged in the business of growing and merchandising flowers and is the first course of the kind offered in Minnesota.

The second course, for amateurs, is one in which members of the Crow Wing County Garden and Flower Society will be particularly interested in. It will cover flower growing, gardening and fruit growing and will be held March 26, 27 and 28. W. H. Alderman, chief of the division of horticulture at University Farm, is working out the program. Special emphasis will be placed on the growing of flowering and ornamental plants, and on the production of vegetables and fruits. The program for each day will be varied in order that all may be interested. Information with regard to either course may be obtained by inquiry addressed to Dr. A. V. Storm or Prof. W. H. Alderman, University Farm.

Moisture is Needed

A TRIP about Brainerd and vicinity shows how little snow is on the ground and records of the weather indicate but little snow or rain has fallen. To the south of Brainerd one sees not even a snowflake or bit of ice on the highway.

Fields are bare. Ground is dry and in some sections even dusty. Farm lands are crying for moisture and the drought-like conditions of this winter will be reflected in crop shortages next season if no snow or rain falls.

Weather forecasters assert there is still enough of a so-called winter left to bring snow and that the spring will usher in a rainy season. Out in the country, as reported by the forestry department farmers of Crow Wing county are doing much land clearing and thus taking some advantage of the unusual weather conditions prevailing.

Water is a crying need in some sections of the southern part of America where stock and farm land are suffering. If a lake country like the Brainerd area notices lack of moisture, imagine what must happen in states where there are few streams and no lakes.

Chaplin's Theory

CHARLIE CHAPLIN, so far as his screen films are concerned and his unusual characterization of big shoes, floppy pants, cane and mustache, is a world character. His films are known throughout the world.

Charlie has never believed in the talkies. To make a talkie, using English as the medium, would restrict presentation of his work to English-speaking audiences. But to make a silent picture and let the only sound be primeval or primitive grunts, hiccoughs, cries of laughter or pleasure that are understood the world over, and you have a picture that will "go as good" in Shanghai, China, Timbuctoo, South Africa, desert Soudan, Czecho-Slovakia, Soviet Steppes or anywhere one may find a machine capable of grinding out his production.

Chaplin is playing to a world of cinema fans and does not restrict himself to a talkie field.

A. V. TAYLOR, manager for the Minnesota Power and Light Company, was in Verndale recently and made known his plans to offer light and power to the farmers of the district. Many farmers of the Verndale area have individual lighting plants. But if power and light are furnished cheaply they would quickly have lines run to their farms. In the Brainerd area most of this lighting to separated small consumers is in the lake country.

ALTHOUGH winter is thought to be a quiet time in highway traffic, it kept the Minnesota Highway Patrol busy last month. There was a total of 129 arrests, 69 cars taken in custody, 28 accidents attended, 794 tags for illegal equipment, 329 tags for improper licenses, 879 violators warned, and road information and various kinds of aid given to 1,395 motorists.

ALBERT H. WIGGIN, great New York banker, claims that world business will be stabilized and depression cured if the United States will reduce the debts other nations owe us.

AITKIN County Tax Reduction League workers are co-operating for the proposed state aid from ditch bonds, similar to that given Koochiching, Beltrami and Lake of the Woods counties last session.

AITKIN exhibitors at the Grand Forks All American Turkey Show won decisive honors in the dressed turkey competition.

AN "open" winter such as we are having is reducing winter train operation costs to a minimum.

Stewart as Game Commissioner

THE appointment of William D. Stewart as State Game and Fish Commissioner seems to meet with general approval. In the Brainerd lake district Mr. Stewart is well known to many persons, having for years had a cottage on Gull lake and thus being acquainted first hand with game and fish conditions in the lake country.

His appointment, says the Bemidji Daily Pioneer, seems to strike a popular chord throughout the state and those who have come in contact with the genial sportsman predict that the state will benefit from his interest and enthusiasm.

Louis Enstrom of Roseau county, former member of the legislature, has been named as assistant and will spend most of his time in the field, inspecting the work being done and ascertaining the changes that may be required. From reliable information it is believed that there will be no wholesale removal of game wardens but that changes will only be made upon the recommendation of Mr. Enstrom after a careful examination of the work that has been done.

Commissioner Stewart showed his interest in adequate lake levels by attending the Brainerd meeting and making an address in behalf of the cause which means so much to the northern lake country and in its train affects fish and game life.

Flowers for Amateurs and for Professionals

Two short courses for florists, one for commercial florists and the other for amateurs, to be held at University Farm in March, have been announced by Dr. A. V. Storm, director of short courses, of the University Department of Agriculture.

The commercial florists' short course, set for March 4 and 5, is an entirely new course designed for those engaged in the business of growing and merchandising flowers and is the first course of the kind offered in Minnesota.

The second course, for amateurs, is one in which members of the Crow Wing County Garden and Flower Society will be particularly interested in. It will cover flower growing, gardening and fruit growing and will be held March 26, 27 and 28. W. H. Alderman, chief of the division of horticulture at University Farm, is working out the program. Special emphasis will be placed on the growing of flowering and ornamental plants, and on the production of vegetables and fruits. The program for each day will be varied in order that all may be interested. Information with regard to either course may be obtained by inquiry addressed to Dr. A. V. Storm or Prof. W. H. Alderman, University Farm.

Moisture is Needed

A TRIP about Brainerd and vicinity shows how little snow is on the ground and records of the weather indicate but little snow or rain has fallen. To the south of Brainerd one sees not even a snowflake or bit of ice on the highway.

Fields are bare. Ground is dry and in some sections even dusty. Farm lands are crying for moisture and the drought-like conditions of this winter will be reflected in crop shortages next season if no snow or rain falls.

Weather forecasters assert there is still enough of a so-called winter left to bring snow and that the spring will usher in a rainy season. Out in the country, as reported by the forestry department farmers of Crow Wing county are doing much land clearing and thus taking some advantage of the unusual weather conditions prevailing.

Water is a crying need in some sections of the southern part of America where stock and farm land are suffering. If a lake country like the Brainerd area notices lack of moisture, imagine what must happen in states where there are few streams and no lakes.

Chaplin's Theory

CHARLIE CHAPLIN, so far as his screen films are concerned and his unusual characterization of big shoes, flopping pants, cane and mustache, is a world character. His films are known throughout the world.

Charlie has never believed in the talkies. To make a talkie, using English as the medium, would restrict presentation of his work to English-speaking audiences. But to make a silent picture and let the only sound be primeval or primitive grunts, hiccoughs, cries of laughter or pleasure that are understood the world over, and you have a picture that will "go as good" in Shanghai, China, Timbuctoo, South Africa, desert Sudan, Czechoslovakia, Soviet Steppes or anywhere one may find a machine capable of grinding out his production.

Chaplin is playing to a world of cinema fans and does not restrict himself to a talkie field.

A. V. TAYLOR, manager for the Minnesota Power and Light Company, was in Verndale recently and made known his plans to offer light and power to the farmers of the district. Many farmers of the Verndale area have individual lighting plants. But if power and light are furnished cheaply they would quickly have lines run to their farms. GUSTAFSON TO SPEAK ON INDIAN RELICS

Former Mayor of Pequot to Give Address at Crow Wing County Historical Society February 5

PUBLIC CORDIALLY INVITED

Meeting Called by President Henry I. Cohen of Society at Farmers Room in Court House

On Thursday evening at 8 o'clock, former Mayor F. T. Gustafson of Pequot, who has gained fame as collector of Indian relics, will exhibit some of his wonderful finds in Chippewa mounds and give a most interesting address at the Crow Wing County Historical society meeting in the farmers' room at the court house. The public is cordially invited.

In an article published last Sunday in the St. Paul Pioneer Press Mr. Gustafson reveals the location of some of his finds, an island out near the middle of Whitefish Lake at almost the center of the state, known as an old burial ground or cemetery of the earlier Ojibway Indians. Extending out from the island are numerous sandbars. His address next Thursday evening will cover in full his explorations.

The most unique relic, which attracted universal attention when exhibited in the Twin Cities, is the large earthen jar, one of the first of its kind to be found in central Minnesota and now covered by many collectors and societies.

The meeting Thursday will be an unusual one, the society calling on interested persons to exhibit Indian relics, old photographs and other matter. There will also be a program of community singing with old time songs, talks, etc.

The officers of the Crow Wing County Historical society are President Henry I. Cohen, Vice President Mrs. M. A. Bronson, Secretary Mrs. J. G. Heald, Treasurer Mrs. Florence Fleming, Historian Judge L. B. Kinder, Assistant Historians Mrs. Angus Murray and Mrs. J. M. Hayes, Directors Mrs. Flora Elder, Mrs. Irma Camp Hartley, A. J. Forsythe, Rev. O. L. Bolstad, County Agent E. G. Roth, T. T. Blackburn and Judge L. B. Kinder.

J. B. Lawrence, 81, retired blacksmith of the Northern Pacific shops, day noon according to word received passed away at Tacoma, Wash., yesterday in Brainerd today.

Mr. Lawrence left Brainerd after his retirement to live in Washington.

He is survived by his widow, two sons, W. J. Lawrence, Duluth, Charles Lawrence of Livingstone, Mont., two daughters, Mrs. Oscar Henning and Mrs. Frank Hall, Tacoma, one brother, Dan Lawrence and a nephew Wm. A. Hanna, Brainerd.

Funeral rites will be conducted at Tacoma Monday.

OBITUARY

The oldest and last pioneer of Washington county passed away Saturday evening, January 3, 1931, at 6:20 p. m. in the Lake View Memorial hospital in Stillwater, where she had been for a few days. Mrs. Grace A. Rose was called away to her mother's bedside on December 30, 1931. The cause of Mrs. Oliver's passing away was due to a fall while on her morning walk, when she fell and broke her left hip, two years and seven months ago. She bore her suffering without ever complaining. Her trust was in her Lord and one could hear her praying or singing hymns. One of her favorites was "Wonderful Words of Love."

Mrs. Oliver was born in Holland, Erie county, New York, on March 8, 1834. She came to Lakeland, Minn., when 18 years of age, with her parents, Jonas and Sarah Newell. This journey from Buffalo, New York, to Lakeland, took three weeks. They came on the steamer "Franklin No. 2," landing in Lakeland, on May 1, 1851. The following year, on December 14, 1852, she married Captain John Oliver, son of Captain and Mrs. John Oliver, who came here from Boston, Mass., in 1848. Mrs. Oliver was loved by all who knew her in Brainerd as well as in her home town. She was a true, devoted Christian and mother. Her daily motto was, "I am happy, All is well."

Funeral services were in her home where she lived for over 77 years, and were conducted by Rev. Benson of the Congregational church, of St. Paul, Minn. The text was 1. Tim. 6-6. Hymns, "Abide With Me," and Jesus Savior Pilot Me."

ROAD BOOSTER SEES CHANGES OF 12 YRS.

Truman Pierson Marvels at Improvements, Talks Politics and Discusses Weather

"Brainerd has surely improved since 12 years ago today when I first set foot in the city to be greeted by that never to be forgotten booster the late R. R. Wise. I stepped off an N. P. train with the wind blowing an icy blast, the ground covered with several feet of snow and the temperature so cold that I thought during the night I heard Jack Frost lifting the tin squares off the Ransford roof," said smiling and jolly Truman Pierson, international president of the Mississippi River Scenic Highway System, founder and organizer of the project and nationally known good roads man and tourist development expert today.

"In those days we made a trip from the Twin Cities to Brainerd an event. Roads were poor, and at this time of year were blocked by snow drifts. Tourist business for Minnesota was then worth about five million annually. Today it is close to $1,000,000,000 a year according to the best estimates. Then we had nothing in the way of a system of state roads. Today we have the finest system in the country and if Governor Olson has his way we will have a still better one.

"Then, as now, the Dispatch was boosting away for Brainerd, persistently and consistently, and for good roads and tourist traffic development. Since my meeting here with the Brainerd Chamber of Commerce 12 years ago Scout Car No. 1 has travelled more than 500,000 miles while we have preached from the text compiled jointly by Pat McGarry and R. R. Wise, namely the 'Land of Ten Thousand Lakes.'

"Down in St. Paul at the state house they will tell you there are not that many lakes, in fact that there are only about 3,000. Be that as it may, the originators of the slogan 'Minnesota, Land of Ten Thousand Lakes,' were Messrs. Wise and McGarry, therefore it is a product of Brainerd and Walker. Moreover it was Senator Pat McGarry more than any other one person who fathered the real good roads movement in Minnesota. He was then in the senate and many a time he and Mr. Wise would sit in Brainerd and in St. Paul and talk of their vision, a network of hard roads in every direction across this state.

"Just as a prophet is not without honor save in his own country so it is with giving towns credit for civic pride or lack of it. I used to hear moss-backs here knock the city. I don't hear it any more. Too much credit cannot be given this city of Brainerd for its early day work in originating the development of Minnesota's ten thousand lakes in an organized way and a state system of roads.

"Speaking of roads Minnesota will be much better off by accelerating the road building program with a bond issue for $15,000,000 or $20,000,000 if that can be done without levying a direct tax against property. Authors of legislation hold it can be done by creating a sinking fund and retiring the issue with money from vehicle and gas taxes. A point in favor of this is that it will give the state 825 miles of pavement, will keep 5,000 men employed for two years and will give them about $9,000,000 in wages most of which will be circulating through the usual channels of trade."

Asked if he was in politics Mr. Pierson smiled, "up to my neck, if you mean am I for Floyd Olson. We love him in Minneapolis and predict he will be one of the state's greatest governors. He is a progressive in the true sense of the word."

What do you think of the federal judgeship, he was asked. "I think that things have come to a pretty pass when the wishes of the people so aptly and truly expressed by the recommendation of United States Senators Schall and Shipstead and the ten congressmen of Ernest A. Michel for the appointment, can be gained by one man. Mr. Michel is a neighbor of mine, a highly thought of gentleman, able lawyer and a square shooter. He was raised on a farm, worked his way up to the honorable occupation of bar-keeper. He has never mixed in politics, is reserved, level headed, honest and upright and just an ordinary citizen. Instead of being a corporation lawyer he has had most of his practice on the side of the individual against the corporation. The steel trust and the railroad, I find in my travels do not favor him, but on the other hand the common people do. Things have come to a pretty pass when a former corporation lawyer and railroad attorney now serving as U. S. attorney general can yield greater power in the selection of a federal judge than the United States senate and our senators were elected to represent us in this and other matters. This issue will mean some more elections like the last one where the people rose in their might and left no doubt as to what they wanted. The present administration at Washington is not gaining friends in Minnesota as the result of Attorney Mitchell's attitude as near as I can gather after talking with people in 30 Minnesota counties."

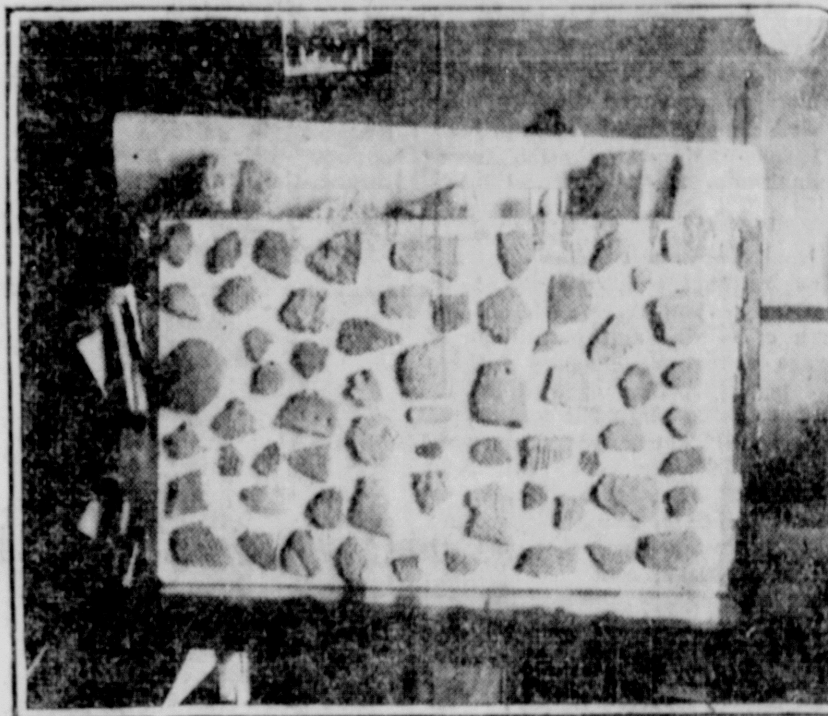

Mr. Pierson turned the nose of Scout Car No. 1 south from Brainerd and headed for the gulf. He came into town from Winnipeg and Port Arthur, Ontario, where he succeeded in securing action from the Canadian government looking to the building of 40 miles of pavement for the Scenic Highway.

"Who would have dreamed a few years ago of a motorist driving his car into Brainerd in January just like in June," he called as he waved goodbye to City Engineer R. T. Campbell.

GOVERNOR OLSON WINS ACCLAIM

Sturdy Bearing and Kindly Interest Shown Draws Large Crowd of Friends to Little Falls

KEPT BUSY SHAKING HANDS

Little Falls Vies in Showering Attention on Governor and Legislative Party Yesterday

Little Falls yesterday outdid itself as host to Governor Floyd B. Olson and the legislative party which viewed Camp Ripley and the Lindbergh home-stand. The special train of seven coaches steamed to the military reservation and the party then marched to the headquarters building where they were met by the commandant and other officers.

Eleven planes had preceded the train. The army squadron of seven planes was commanded by Capt. George M. Palmer. The navy flight of four planes was commanded by Lieut. M. D. Crawford. The governor shook hands with all the fliers. Citizens then crowded about him and he was kept busy greeting old friends and being introduced to new ones. He has a remarkable memory for faces and names and remembered many of his Brainerd friends, including the Dispatch representative. He had a pleasant word for each.

Maj. Gen. Walsh then led the party of governor and legislators to the main room of the headquarters building and showed the plans of the grounds and answered questions. Other buildings were examined. Movie and still photographers snapped their battery of cameras.

The aviation corp left shortly after 4 o'clock, flew low and saluted the governor and then performed various evolutions. The field was in fairly good shape.

Cars took the official party to the Lindbergh home and grounds and they were shown all its attractions. The train steamed to Little Falls, carrying others who had not made the trip by automobile. At the depot the governor held an informal reception, school children forming a long line anxious to shake hands and joined later by many elderly persons including townsmen and many farmers.

The evening banquet was served in the large lodge room of the Elks building. There were approximately 200 diners present. Mayor Kiewit presided. The speakers included Oscar A. Swenson, speaker of the house, Senator C. Rosenmeier, Maj. Gen. E. A. Walsh and Governor Floyd B. Olson. The governor expressed his pleasure at being present and able to see the fine development of the new military reservation and to view the old Charles Lindbergh homestead. He stated that he used to be associated with the late congressman in politics and if Congressman Lindbergh had been alive today, that probably Lindbergh and not Olson would be governor today. He told his to many of Lindbergh's policies.

The governor stated he had nothing to do with any appropriation for the acquirement of the Lindbergh home-stand but it would be the greatest pleasure of his career as governor to sign the bill making the Lindbergh home and grounds a state park, in remembrance of the acts of the congressman's son, Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, and as a memorial for future generations.

Among the Brainerd people present were G. D. LaBar, Dr. J. A. Thoben, W. H. Gemmell, Hilding Swanson, Dr. R. A. Beise, C. A. Ryan, Archie Falconer, E. H. Rhodes, John A. Hoffbauer, Frank N. Russell, Con O'Brien, Harry O'Brien, Jay O'Brien, Clyde E. Parker, O. A. Peterson, John Lewis, a group of ladies, Mrs. Ernest Butler, Mrs. Clyde E. Parker and Miss Genevieve McCabe, also Mr. and Mrs. Peter Rosko and others.

They Couldn't Know

Back in 1818 the greatest newspaper of the day declared that the world had reached the limit of human expansion. It even went further, saying that there weren't enough supplies in the world to support further growth of population.

The mind of 1818 couldn't conceive of the miracles that human ingenuity would perform during the twentieth century. It couldn't imagine the wonders that would be wrought by new agricultural methods and modern manufacturing genius. It was ignorant of transportation as we know it, or the progressive sales methods of today. It could not see the vital part that would be played by advertising.

Even today there are some who fail to realize what an important factor advertising has become. Advertising is as much a part of today's life as electricity, antiseptic surgery or automobiles. It keeps us up to date on the many things we need in order to live profitable, happy and useful lives. It presents for our approval articles of all kinds and for all purposes. The requirements of each member of the family are met by advertised offers of good merchandise of proved value.

The advertisements save time, money and effort for those who read them and follow their guidance. They are practical guarantees of satisfaction.

Funeral rites will be conducted at Tacoma Monday.

OBITUARY

The oldest and last pioneer of Washington county passed away Saturday evening, January 3, 1931, at 6:20 p. m., in The Lake View Memorial hospital in Stillwater, where she had been for a few days. Mrs. Gracia A. Rose was called away to her mother's bedside, on December 30, 1931. The cause of Mrs. Oliver's passing away was due to a fall while on her morning walk, when she fell and broke her left hip, two years and seven months ago. She bore her suffering without ever complaining. Her trust was in her Lord and one could hear her praying or singing hymns. One of her favorites was "Wonderful Words of Love."

Mrs. Oliver was born in Holland, Erie county, New York, on March 8, 1834. She came to Lakeland, Minn., when 18 years of age, with her parents, Jonas and Sarah Newell. The journey from Buffalo, New York, to Lakeland, took three weeks. They came on the steamer "Franklin No. 2," landing in Lakeland, on May 1, 1851. The following year, on December 14, 1852, she married Captain John Oliver, who came here from Boston, Mass., in 1848. Mrs. Oliver was loved by all who knew her in Brainerd as well as in her home town. She was a true, devoted Christian and mother. Her daily motto was, "I am happy. All is well."

Funeral services were in her home where she lived for over 77 years, and were conducted by Rev. Benson of the Congregational church, of St. Paul, Minn. The text was 1. Tim. 6-6. Hymns, "Abide With Me," and Jesus Savior Pilot Me."

ROAD BOOSTER SEES CHANGES OF 12 YRS.

Truman Pierson Marvels at Improvements, Talks Politics and Discusses Weather

"Brainerd has surely improved since 12 years ago today when I first set foot in the city to be greeted by that never to be forgotten booster the late R. R. Wise. I stepped off an N. P. train with the wind blowing an icy blast, the ground covered with several feet of snow and the temperature so cold that I thought during the night I heard Jack Frost lifting the tin squares off the Ransford roof," said smiling and jolly Truman Pierson, international president of the Mississippi River Scenic Highway System, founder and organizer of the project and nationally known good roads man and tourist development expert today.

"In those days we called a trip from the Twin Cities to Brainerd an event. Roads were poor, and at this time of year were blocked by snow drifts. Tourist business for Minnesota was then worth about five million annually. Today it is close to $1,000,000,000 a year according to the best estimates. Then we had nothing in the way of a system of state roads. Today we have the finest system in the country and if Governor Olson has his way we will have a still better one.

"Then, as now, the Dispatch was boosting away for Brainerd, persistently and consistently, and for good roads and tourist traffic development. Since my meeting here with the Brainerd Chamber of Commerce 12 years ago Scout Car No. 1 has travelled more than 500,000 miles while we have preached from the text compiled jointly by Pat McGarry and R. R. Wise, namely the 'Land of Ten Thousand Lakes.'

"Down in St. Paul at the state house they will tell you there are not that many lakes, in fact that there are only about 3,600. Be that as it may the originators of the slogan 'Minnesota, Land of Ten Thousand Lakes,' were Messrs. Wise and McGarry, therefore it is a product of Brainerd and Walker. Moreover it was Senator Pat McGarry more than any other one person who fathered the real good roads movement in Minnesota. He was then in the senate and many a time he and Mr. Wise would sit in Brainerd and in St. Paul and talk of their vision, a network of hard roads in every direction across this state.

"Just as a prophet is not without honor save in his own country so it is with giving towns credit for civic pride or lack of it. I used to hear moss-backs here knock the city. I don't hear it any more. Too much credit cannot be given this city of Brainerd for its early day work in originating the development of Minnesota's ten thousand lakes in an organized way and a state system of roads.

"Speaking of roads Minnesota will be much better off by accelerating the road building program with a bond issue for $15,000,000 or $20,000,000 if that can be done without levying a direct tax against property. Authors of legislation hold it can be done by creating a sinking fund and retiring the issue with money from vehicle and gas taxes. A point in favor of this is that it will give the state 825 miles of pavement, will keep 5,000 men employed for two years and will give them about $9,000,000 in wages most of which will be circulating through the usual channels of trade."

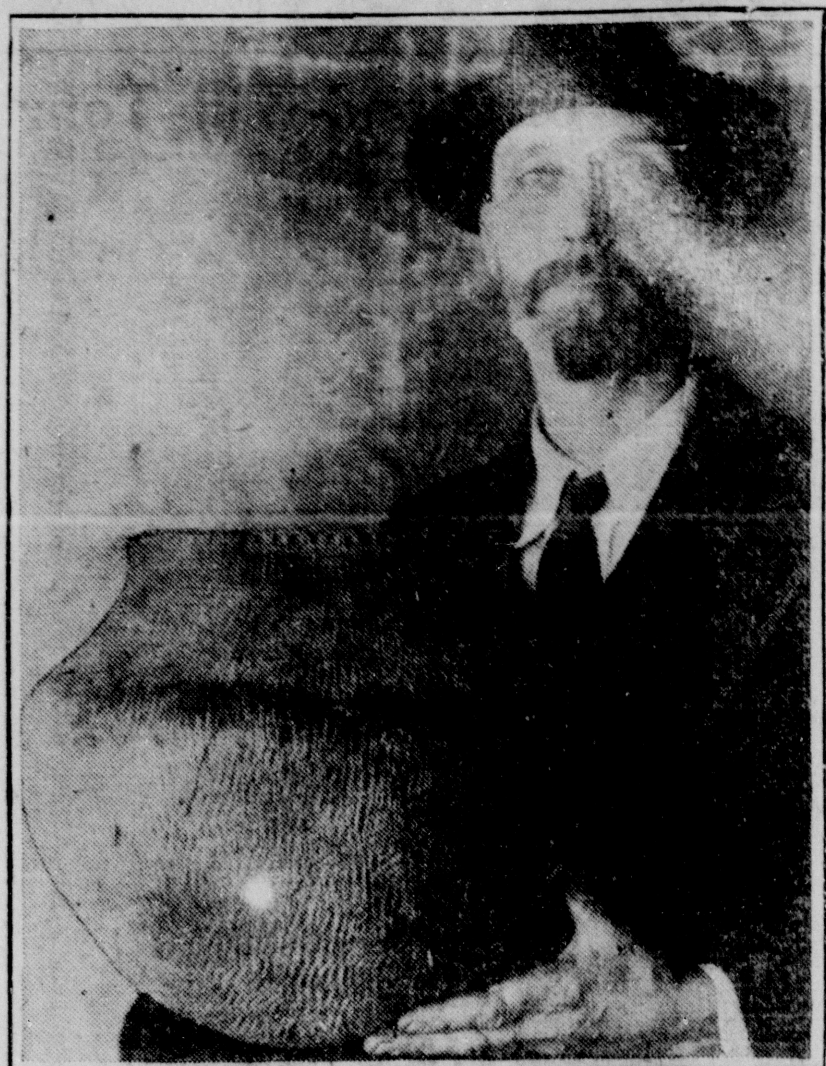

Asked if he was in politics Mr. Pierson smiled, "up to my neck, if you mean am I for Floyd Olson. We love him in Minneapolis and predict he will be one of the state's greatest governors. He is a progressive in the true sense of the word."

What do you think of the federal judgeship, he was asked. "I think that things have come to a pretty pass when the wishes of the people so aptly and truly expressed by the recommendation of United States Senators Schall and Shipstead and the ten congressmen of Ernest A. Michel for the appointment, can be gained by one man. Mr. Michel is a neighbor of mine, a highly thought of gentleman, able lawyer and a square shooter. He was raised on a farm, worked his way up to the honorable occupation of barrister. He has never mixed in politics is reserved, level headed, honest and upright and just an ordinary citizen. Instead of being a corporation lawyer he has had most of his practice on the side of the individual against the corporation. The steel trust and the railroads, I find in my travels do not favor him, but on the other hand the common people do. Things have come to a pretty pass when a former corporation lawyer and railroad attorney now serving as U. S. attorney general can wield greater power in the selection of a federal judge than the United States senate and our senators we elected to represent us in this and other matters. This issue will mean some more elections like the last one where the people rose in their might and left no doubt as to what they wanted. The present administration at Washington is not gaining friends in Minnesota as the result of Attorney Mitchell's attitude as near as I can gather after talking with people in 50 Minnesota counties."

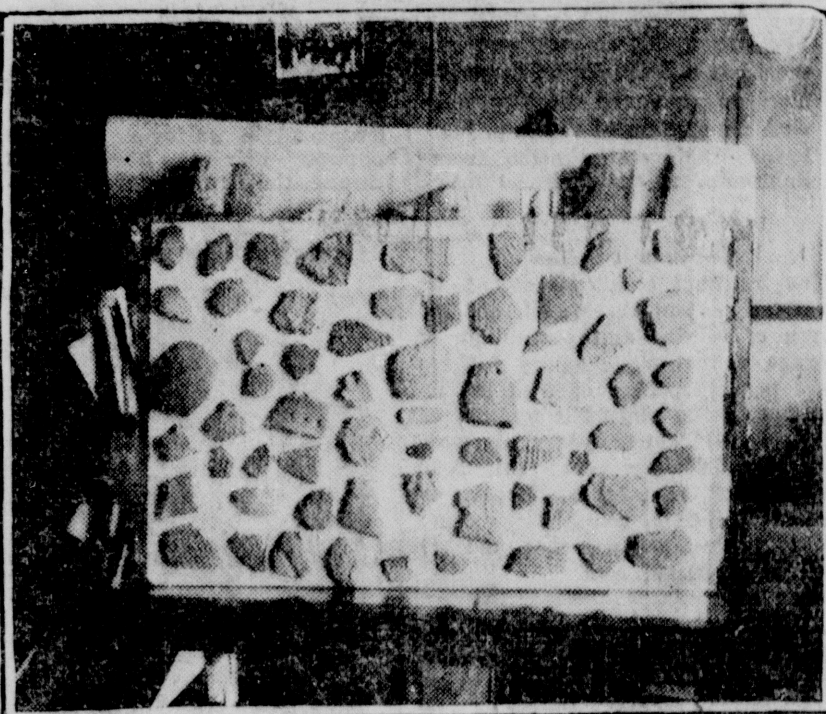

Mr. Pierson turned the nose of Scout Car No. 1 south from Brainerd and headed for the gulf. He came into town from Winnipeg and Port Arthur, Ontario, where he succeeded in securing action from the Canadian government looking to the building of 40 miles of pavement for the Scenic Highway.

"Who would have dreamed a few years ago of a motorist driving his car into Brainerd in January just like in June," he called as he waved goodbye to City Engineer R. T. Campbell.

GOVERNOR OLSON WINS ACCLAIM

Study Bearing and Kindly Interest Shown Draws Large Crowd of Friends to Little Falls

KEPT BUSY SHAKING HANDS

Little Falls Vies in Showering Attention on Governor and Legislative Party Yesterday

Little Falls yesterday outdid itself as host to Governor Floyd B. Olson and the legislative party which viewed Camp Ripley and the Lindbergh home-stand. The special train of seven coaches steamed to the military reservation and the party then marched to the headquarters building where they were met by the commandant and other officers.

Eleven planes had preceded the train. The army squadron of seven planes was commanded by Capt. George M. Palmer. The navy flight of four planes was commanded by Lieut. M. D. Crawford. The governor shook hands with all the fliers. Citizens then crowded about him and he was kept busy greeting old friends and being introduced to new ones. He has a remarkable memory for faces and names and remembered many of his Brainerd friends, including the Dispatch representative. He had a pleasant word for each.

Maj. Gen. Walsh then led the party of governor and legislators to the main room of the headquarters building and showed the plans of the grounds and answered questions. Other buildings were examined. Movie and still photographers snapped their battery of cameras.

The aviation corp left shortly after 4 o'clock, flew low and saluted the governor and then performed various evolutions. The field was in fairly good shape.

Cars took the official party to the Lindbergh home and grounds and they were shown all its attractions. The train steamed to Little Falls, carrying others who had not made the trip by automobile. At the depot the governor held an informal reception, shook hands with a long line of anxious children forming a long line anxious to shake hands and joined later by many elderly persons including townsmen and many farmers.

The evening banquet was served in the large lodge room of the Elks building. There were approximately 200 diners present. Mayor Kiewel presided. The speakers included Oscar A. Swenson, speaker of the house, Senator C. Rosenmeier, Maj. Gen. E. A. Walsh and Governor Floyd B. Olson. The governor expressed his pleasure at being present and able to see the fine development of the new military reservation and to view the old Charles Lindbergh home-stand. He stated that he used to be associated with the late congressman in politics and if Congressman Lindbergh had been alive today, that probably Lindbergh and not Olson would be governor today. He fell heir to many of Lindbergh's policies.

The governor stated he had nothing to do with any appropriation for the acquisition of the Lindbergh home-stand but it would be the greatest pleasure of his career as governor to sign the bill making the Lindbergh home and grounds a state park, in remembrance of the acts of the congressman's son, Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, and as a memorial for future generations.

Among the Brainerd people present were G. D. LeBar, Dr. J. A. Thabes, W. H. Gemmell, Hilding Swanson, Dr. R. A. Beise, C. A. Ryan, Archie Falconer, E. H. Rhodes, John A. Hoffbauer, Frank N. Russell, Con O'Brien, Harry O'Brien, Jay O'Brien, Clyde E. Parker, O. A. Peterson, John Lewis, a group of ladies, Mrs. Ernest Buller, Mrs. Clyde E. Parker and Miss Genevieve McCabe, also Mr. and Mrs. Peter Rosko and others.

They Couldn't Know

Back in 1818 the greatest newspaper of the day declared that the world had reached the limit of human expansion. It even went further, saying that there weren't enough supplies in the world to support further growth of population.

The mind of 1818 couldn't conceive of the miracles that human ingenuity would perform during the twentieth century. It couldn't imagine the wonders that would be wrought by new agricultural methods and modern manufacturing genius. It was ignorant of transportation as we know it, or the progressive sales methods of today. It could not see the vital part that would be played by advertising.

Even today there are some who fail to realize what an important factor advertising has become. Advertising is as much a part of today's life as electricity, antiseptic surgery or automobiles. It keeps us up to date on the many things we need in order to live profitable, happy and useful lives. It presents for our approval articles of all kinds and for all purposes. The requirements of each member of the family are met by advertised offers of good merchandise of proved value.

The advertisements save time, money and effort for those who read them and follow their guidance. They are practical guarantees of satisfaction.

MARSHALL, TEMPLETON, SWANSON WIN

AITKIN'S SPURT IN LAST QUARTER BRINGS NEAR WIN

BRAINERD FORCED TO CONTENT ITSELF WITH 18 TO 17 WIN; SHOOT POORLY

HOME TEAM HOLDS EIGHT POINT LEAD STARTING 4th, FAIL TO TALLY

Two close a score for the comfort of the home fans, Brainerd high school eked out an 18 to 17 win over Aitkin here last evening.

Rapid shooting which had telling results against Brainerd in the final quarter brought the score to its close margin when Aitkin scored three field goals and one free throw while Brainerd was idle.

Erratic in scoring the "Warriors" came near giving away the game when the final gun sounded.

Had it not been for the new recruits to the first string, Templeton and Swanson, and the work of Marshall, Brainerd would have lost.

Tough luck dogged the heels of Elmer Foster, the veteran, all evening. He tried shots time and again and only once did one find the hoop.

On the other hand Dave Templeton and Gene Swanson came through to give Brainerd 10 of its 18 points. The former got away to a fast start in the first quarter. He popped two into the Aitkin net in rapid succession. Later he came through for another. Then he was relieved when a blood clot in his nose hampered his breathing.

Swanson hung up two field goals. His natural cage ability asserted itself again last evening. Several times he gave a beautiful exhibition of ball handling and shooting which missed their marks but nevertheless drew applause from the fans.

Brainerd found Aitkin's defense wide open from the start. Continually the Brainerd boys broke through getting close shots that rolled around the hoop and out.

Brainerd was never behind. Had the team been defeated in Aitkin's final spurt it would have been nothing less than a calamity.

A safe victory would have been recorded had one quint been allowed to remain in the game for the major part of the contest. Coach Dammann while also concentrating on winning took into consideration also that he had nine first rate cagers and that each deserved a chance to play. It made a nice game out of it.

The venerable Marshall was in the traces. A mere cold could not keep him from it. He played the entire four quarters and if he was on the sick list he certainly did not show it. He continued to hold his prestige as Brainerd high's most valuable player. His veteran ability expressed itself in the last minute of play when he gained the ball and lead his team in a semi-stall play. Foster was valuable on this play also as the only other veteran of the squad, quieting the three newer members of the team and informing them that stalling with a few seconds to go when the lead is in the right hands is good basketball. It is good basketball but not to the team behind.

And now, let it here be known, that Aitkin has a team not to be thought of lightly.

Coach Hall is to be congratulated on the way he has shaped his men. The team is a 100 per cent improvement over last year's quint.

Shortly after play opened Brown fouled Larson who was given the starting center berth. The latter missed two free throw chances. Dave Templeton a few seconds later scored from a side basket shot. He scored again when he got a chance to shoot from under the basket. Foster hung up the third basket for Brainerd and a few seconds later Brown came through for Aitkin's first field goal. He was unguarded when he shot. Templeton fouled Peterson who missed.

Sullivan scored for Aitkin and Brainerd took time out. On resuming play Marshall scored from outside the Aitkin's defense and Templeton scored on a pass from Foster into the Aitkin's defense zone. Aitkin took time out. A few seconds later first quarter closed with Brainerd leading 10 to 4.

Early in the second quarter Peterson fouled Templeton who missed. Spurrier was sent in for Rude to keep the Brainerd boys from shooting at close range. White substituted for McPherson.

Sullivan scored. Wyle went in for Templeton. Nickander got his first basket of the game. Marshall scored for Brainerd under the hoop. Franks went in for Larson at center and Swanson replaced Foster. Brainerd held a 12 to 8 lead at the half.

At the beginning of play in the second half Spurrier fouled Franks who missed two. Swanson sunk a pretty basket on a pass from Franks. Sullivan was called for holding Swanson who missed his free throw chance. Swanson a few seconds later scored on a pass from Franks. Brown fouled Marshall who scored. Peterson fouled Franks who scored one. Nickander scored on a one handed shot to complete the scoring in the third quarter. Brainerd lead at this time 18 to 10.

Brown started the scoring for Aitkin in the fourth quarter. Templeton, McPherson, Foster and Larson were sent into the fray, Marshall being the only one of the quint not to be substituted. McPherson fouled Sullivan who missed. McPherson fouled Peterson who missed. He got a substitute free throw when a Brainerd man stepped over the line. He scored the penalty. Rude scored for Aitkin to make the score 18 to 15 for Brainerd. White substituted McPherson. Peterson scored for Aitkin and the visitors started long distance shooting. Foster was fouled and missed the free throw. Brainerd recovered the ball and played a semi-stall game to the close.

In the preliminary game the Brainerd Hi-Y defeated Aitkin Hi-Y 31 to 13.

Clever tumbling was demonstrated by high school boys at the half in the main event while the pep band enlivened interest. An innovation was the installation and use of a loud speaker to introduce players on both teams, announce substitutions and high lights of the game. The announcer was Ben Taylor, assistant coach.

RUSSELL CREAMERY TEAM TAKES PUNISHMENT IN WINNING 33-22

Brainerd's Russell Creamery cage team scored a 33 to 22 victory over Staples at the latter's floor last evening but the players were forced to take punishment in order to win.

Staples instituted a bang up type of basketball when they found themselves at the low end of the count at the close of the first half.

As a result several of the Brainerd players bear signs of combat today. The Brainerd team plays its next game at Crosby, February 8.

MARSHALL, TEMPLETON, SWANSON WIN

AITKIN'S SPURT IN LAST QUARTER BRINGS NEAR WIN

BRAINERD FORCED TO CONTENT ITSELF WITH 18 TO 17 WIN; SHOOT POORLY

HOME TEAM HOLDS EIGHT POINT LEAD STARTING 4th, FAIL TO TALLY

Two close a score for the comfort of the home fans, Brainerd high school ckd out an 18 to 17 win over Aitkin here last evening.

Rapid shooting which had telling results against Brainerd in the final quarter brought the score to its close margin when Aitkin scored three field goals and one free throw while Brainerd was idle.

Erratic in scoring the "Warriors" came near giving away the game when the final gun sounded.

Had it not been for the new recruits to the first string, Templeton and Swanson, and the work of Marshall, Brainerd would have lost.

Tough luck dogged the heels of Elmer Foster, the veteran, all evening. He tried shots time and again and only once did one find the hoop.

On the other hand Dave Templeton and Gene Swanson came through to give Brainerd 10 of its 18 points. The former got away to a fast start in the first quarter. He popped two into the Aitkin net in rapid succession. Later he came through for another. Then he was relieved when a blood clot in his nose hampered his breathing.

Swanson hung up two field goals. His natural cage ability asserted itself again last evening. Several times he gave a beautiful exhibition of ball handling and shooting which missed their marks but nevertheless drew applause from the fans.

Brainerd found Aitkin's defense wide open from the start. Continually the Brainerd boys broke through getting close shots that rolled around the hoop and out.

Brainerd was never behind. Had the team been defeated in Aitkin's final spurt it would have been nothing less than a calamity.

A safe victory would have been recorded had one quint been allowed to remain in the game for the major part of the contest. Coach Dammann while also concentrating on winning took into consideration also that he had nine first rate cagers and that each deserved a chance to play. It made a nice game out of it.

The venerable Marshall was in the traces. A mere cold could not keep him from it. He played the entire four quarters and if he was on the sick list he certainly did not show it.

He continued to hold his prestige as Brainerd's most valuable player. His veteran ability expressed itself in the last minute of play when he gained the ball and lead his team in a semi-stall play. Foster was valuable on this play also as the only other veteran of the squad, quieting the three newer members of the team and informing them that stalling with a few seconds to go when the lead is in the right hands is good basketball. It is good basketball but not to the team benefit.

And now, let it here be known, that Aitkin has a team not to be thought of lightly.

Coach Hall is to be congratulated on the way he has shaped his men. The team is a 100 per cent improvement over last year's quint.

Shortly after play opened Brown fouled Larson who was given the starting center berth. The latter missed two free throw chances. Dave Templeton a few seconds later scored from a side basket shot. He scored again when he got a chance to shoot from under the basket. Foster hung up the third basket for Brainerd and a few seconds later Brown came through for Aitkin's first field goal. He was unguarded when he shot. Templeton fouled Peterson who missed.

Sullivan scored for Aitkin and Brainerd took time out. On resuming play Marshall scored from outside the Aitkin's defense and Templeton scored on a pass from Foster into the Aitkin's defense zone. Aitkin took time out. A few seconds later the first quarter closed with Brainerd leading 10 to 4.

Early in the second quarter Peterson fouled Templeton who missed. Spurrier was sent in for Rude to keep the Brainerd boys from shooting at close range. White substituted for McPherson.

Sullivan scored. Wygle went in for Templeton. Nickander got his first basket of the game. Marshall scored for Brainerd under the hoop. Franks went in for Larson at center and Swanson replaced Foster. Brainerd held a 12 to 8 lead at the half.

At the beginning of play in the second half Spurrier fouled Franks who missed two. Swanson sunk a pretty basket on a pass from Franks. Sullivan was called for holding Swanson who missed his free throw chance. Swanson a few seconds later scored on a pass from Franks. Brown fouled Marshall who scored. Peterson fouled Franks who scored one. Nickander scored on a one handed shot to complete the scoring in the third quarter. Brainerd lead at this time 18 to 10.

Brown started the scoring for Aitkin in the fourth quarter. Templeton, McPherson, Foster and Larson were sent into the fray, Marshall being the only one of the quint not to be substituted. McPherson fouled Sullivan who missed. McPherson fouled Peterson who missed. He got a substitute free throw when a Brainerd man stepped over the line. He scored the penalty. Rude scored for Aitkin to make the score 18 to 15 for Brainerd. White substituted McPherson. Peterson scored for Aitkin and the visitors started long distance shooting. Foster was fouled and missed the free throw. Brainerd recovered the ball and played a semi-stall game to the close.

Referee—Piper, U. of M.

In the preliminary game the Brainerd Hi-Y defeated Aitkin Hi-Y 31 to 13.

Clever tumbling was demonstrated by high school boys at the half in the main event while the pep band enlivened interest. An innovation was the installation and use of a loud speaker to introduce players on both teams, announce substitutions and high lights of the game. The announcer was Ben Taylor, assistant coach.

STAPLES ROUGHS IT BUT BRAINERD WINS

RUSSELL CREAMERY TEAM TAKES PUNISHMENT IN WINNING 33-22

Brainerd's Russell Creamery cage team scored a 33 to 22 victory over Staples at the latter's floor last evening but the players were forced to take punishment in order to win.

Staples instituted a bang up type of basketball when they found themselves at the low end of the count at the close of the first half.

As a result several of the Brainerd players bear signs of combat today. The Brainerd team plays its next game at Crosby, February 8.
